

Sister Adele Bullock – 70 Years

After many years of ministry with and to God's people and community Sister Adele is now part of the prayer ministry at Jolenta Convent.

Sister Adele was born in Syracuse, New York. She received her early education in the Syracuse Public Schools and graduated from The Convent School. She received her first degree from Lemoyne College and her Master's in Education for the Catholic University of America.

Sister Adele devoted 42 years in the Catholic School system in several states including New York, Florida, California, Mexico and Hawaii. She inspired her charges with love for life and all God's people in her teaching years.

Sisters Adele's second career was devoted to the Health field at Saint Elizabeth Hospital where she was director of Volunteers for nine years.

In 1989 Sister Adele became the Pastoral Assistant at Blessed Sacrament Parish in Margate, New Jersey working for six years as a Parish Minister visiting the parishioners in hospitals, nursing home and the homebound.

In 1995, Sister moved to Port Charlotte, Florida where she was receptionist at Villa San Carlos, and a volunteer at the Catholic Hospital and surgery center in Port Charlotte.

Sister Adele is currently a prayer minister and resides in Jolenta convent in Syracuse.
