

Sister Karen Krebs

Born and raised in Butler, Pa., Sister Karen joined the Sisters of St. Francis from St. Peter Parish in Butler, PA. She earned a bachelor's degree from Carlow University in Pittsburgh and two master's degrees from Duquesne University and Carlow University respectively. She served for 30 years as a teacher and principal in Catholic schools in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Currently, she ministers as director of Mount Alvernia Day Care and Learning Center in Pittsburgh.