

Sister Suzanne Susany

From teaching to practicing law, Sister Suzanne's varied life in ministry began after she entered the congregation from St. Scholastica Parish in Pittsburgh's Aspinwall neighborhood. After earning a bachelor's degree in theology from Carlow College in Pittsburgh she served in education ministry as a teacher for 14 years. She earned a master's degree from Union College in 1971 and served as the congregation's formation director in the Diocese of San Juan, Puerto Rico and director of religious education and pastoral associate in the Dioceses of Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio for 29 years. In 2010, she earned a law degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh and presently serves as an immigration attorney in Pittsburgh.
