

Sister M. Jogues Goldsmith - 50 years

Born in Utica, N.Y. and named Joan, she entered the Sisters of St. Francis in Syracuse and was given the name Sister M. Jogues. After her perpetual profession in 1969, Sister Jogues ministry in education took her to schools in Syracuse, Vestal, Endicott, East Syracuse and Chadwicks, N.Y. and Lorain, OH. In 1986 she came to St. Rose of Lima School and convent where she has served the children and parish family for 25 years. These days one can find her in the school library assisting the children. Those who know Sister Jogues comment on her friendly disposition and quick smile. In her quiet manner she has been a faithful educator and presence in the lives of many children.
