

Sr. M. Eucharista Johnson –50 years

Born in Baltimore, MD, Sister Eucharista entered the Sisters of Saint Francis in 1960 and made her final profession August 12, 1968. Her studies include a B.A. from LaMoyne College, Syracuse, N.Y. and another at St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, IN. She went on to get her Masters in Theology at St. Bonaventure University in Olean, New York. Sister has served as educator at St. Mary School, Minoa, N.Y., St. Francis School, Hoboken, N.J., St. James School, Syracuse, N.Y., St. Matthew School, E. Syracuse, N.Y., and The Franciscan Academy High School, Syracuse, N.Y. Sister Eucharista was also principal at St. Margaret School, Mattydale, N.Y. and St. Mary School in Baldwinsville, N.Y. She then spent 13 years ministering to the widowed, separated and divorced under the Family Life Bureau in the Diocese of Camden, N.J. and continued as pastoral minister at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Glassboro, NJ. She is currently an administrative assistant at our regional house in Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y.