

Sister Margaret Coyne – 60 years

Sister Margaret, a native of Auburn, New York, entered the community in 1950 after her graduation from The Convent School. She received her master's degrees from the College of Saint Rose in Albany and the University of Geneseo in addition to being granted a certificate of administration from Syracuse University. Sister Margaret taught in various schools in New Jersey and New York and was principal in schools in Florida, New York and California. Currently, Sister Margaret is the finance minister for our sisters in Jolenta Convent. Sister Margaret's gentleness and smile have always been a source of welcome to all who know her and a loving presence to those with whom she lives.
