

Sister Paula Marie Notarthomas – 60 Years

Sister Paula Marie Notarthomas was born and educated in Syracuse, New York. In 1951 she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Francis of Williamsville. She earned a Masters of Science degree in education at the State University College at Buffalo. A diverse career marks sister's 60 years as a Franciscan. Sister served as a teacher and principal in schools in the Diocese of Buffalo and San Juan Puerto Rico. While assistant to the Community Supervisor, she was elected to the congregation's General Council serving as Director of Ministries for eight years. Sister Paula then ministered as a pastoral associate at Columba Bridget parish before serving as administrator of Holy Family Home. Sister is currently living at Fourteen Holy Helpers convent and is involved in community service and volunteer work. .
